

Harris Spice – The Total Spice Solution

Our technical knowledge and processing experience of over 30 years helps us provide a full range of spices & herbs in various grades for all your needs.

We source directly from premium growing regions of the world. Our global procurement team establishes relationships with local collectors & farmers to ensure a steady supply of high-grade product while maintaining ethical trade practices.

Whether you are looking for retail private label, foodservice, industrial/bulk spice, research & development, or packaging and fulfilment, Harris Spice has you covered.

Certifications

Quality & Safety

Our Quality Assurance process is the most important step that complements each stage of our total supply-chain.

The Harris Quality Assurance program ensures plant environmental sanitation and inspection standards and is complemented by a fully-integrated QC lab with testing capabilities for physical, chemical, micro/macro-sanitary & microbiology parameters.

The program integrates the knowledge of our agronomists, chemists, microbiologists, food engineers, and various quality control personnel.

The Art of the Seasoning Blend

We have an extensive assortment of seasoning blends for private label, or offer your customers an exclusive taste experience with signature blends curated just for you. We can collaborate with you to understand your specific needs and deliver tailored spice solutions.

Custom Blends

From fiery fajita seasoning to delicate dessert dusts, we craft an array of blends to suit your vision. Your branding, our expertise: let's create seasonings that captivate.

Matching Flavor

Our R&D team will collaborate with you to replicate and develop custom seasonings, to develop the exact flavor profile and blend formulation to meet your needs, whether it's for foodservice, retail, or food manufacturing.
